FieldHaven's New Marketplace Now Open

"Wow!" "Amazing!" "Beautiful!" "Fantastic!"

These are just a few of the words we heard at the Grand Opening on November 21, 2015 of FieldHaven's newest endeavor, FieldHaven Marketplace and Champy's Catfé, located at 454 F Street, Lincoln, CA.

The opportunity to create this unique project appeared when the historical Quonset hut in Downtown Lincoln became available. FieldHaven Marketplace covers 4,000 square feet dedicated to fun shopping, cat adoptions and Lincoln's own version of a Catfé, the coffee and cat lovers trend that is sweeping across the country.

Named for FieldHaven's ambassador cat, Champy, the Catfé offers coffee, hot drinks and Wi-Fi. Best of all, the Catfé has resident adoptable cats to engage with customers and provide amazing purr therapy.

FieldHaven co-founder Joy Smith and Marketplace manager Leslie Clark toast the opening of the FieldHaven Marketplace and Champy's Catfé

"There is no other place like this in California."

Shopping opportunities at the Marketplace include vintage, antique and upcycled furniture and an artisan co-op that will showcase the diverse works of local artists and "Upcyclers", the art of creating fabulous decorative items and furniture from cast-offs.

"We are creating a unique multi-purpose environment for the community to shop, relax with a coffee or tea, catch up with a friend and meet some great cats all in one place" said Leslie Clark, FieldHaven Marketplace Manager.

"There is no other place like this in California."

All proceeds from FieldHaven Marketplace will benefit FieldHaven Feline Center.

Monthly Giving Program

A beautiful way to celebrate the giving spirit of the Holiday Season and give back to the community and the cats.

Your contribution will go toward supporting all the cats who come to FieldHaven - from the kittens who get adopted easily, to the cats who stay with us for much longer -- the physically challenged cats, the cats who are injured, the seniors and special needs cats, the cats too afraid of people to live indoors and so become barn cats, and the maligned and misunderstood black cats. Your generosity gives them all a second chance at a full life.

Donate for yourself, in the name of a cherished animal companion, a friend or family member.

For a minimum of $10 per month, you will receive a letter and photo highlighting our cat of the month and an update on FieldHaven events written by our president, Joy Smith. You can also give the gift of Monthly Giving and your friends or family will receive these wonderful monthly letters.

Thanks to the Monthly Giving Program special needs kitty Hot Rod will be able to live out her days at FieldHaven.

The “Penthouse” Rescue

Please Help, I’m Stuck.....

This is likely what the frightened kitty was saying from the tiny tree limb he was standing on about fifty feet up in the air. It was an early Saturday morning when we saw a post on Facebook about a cat stuck in a tree for over two days! Our first thought was, “What? Cats don’t really get stuck in trees for days, do they?”, but we went to check it out just in case. Sure enough he was on the top floor of the tree.

Tree and cat rescue expert from Speck & Sons tree company quickly retrieved Penthouse from his precarious perch about fifty feet up in a tree.

The person who posted on Facebook said the cat was a neighborhood stray and he called everyone (Police, Fire Department, Animal Control) in town to help but the general response was “We don’t do that.” FieldHaven was the only group willing to at least try to rescue the cat.

Knowing that we couldn’t scale the tree we called Speck & Sons tree company who had recently done work on the FieldHaven trees. His response was “No problem, I’ll be there in an hour.” When he pulled up in his pick-up truck we were not exactly sure how he planned to get the poor cat out of the tree but he grabbed his suitcase of climbing gear and got to work. It took him about 10 minutes to scale the tree, put the cat in his attached pillow case and bring him safely down.

The relieved cat turned out to be a very affectionate nine month old longhaired Flame Point Siamese. Safely back at the shelter he happily ate a bowl full of food, drank a lot of water and promptly fell asleep. Once he had gone through the FieldHaven veterinary protocol he was put up for adoption. It didn’t take long for someone to fall in love with this handsome boy. Now the kitty, aptly named Penthouse, has a wonderful family and a home of his own.

Aptly named kitty “Penthouse” after his rescue and a hearty meal!

Champy of “Champy’s Catfé” fame hopes everyone will visit his Catfé this Holiday Season!
